

ALROSA reports its June 2020 diamond sales results

July 10, 2020 – ALROSA reports its June 2020 diamond sales results.

ALROSA Group June 2020 sales of rough and polished diamonds accounted for $31.3 million, including proceeds from rough diamond sales of $24.8 million, and from polished diamond sales of $6.5 million.

Six months 2020 total sales reached $991.1 million, including $955.3 million from rough diamonds sales, and $35.8 million from that of polished.

“June sales were expectedly low, as we continue making every effort to maintain stability of the diamond industry and support our customers. In June, for the third time in a row, we offered our long-term customers an unprecedentedly flexible sales conditions, including the opportunity to defer purchasing contracted volumes,” commented ALROSA Deputy CEO Evgeny Agureev. “ALROSA will use all its armor and resources to balance the supply of diamonds with confirmed demand and to avoid putting pressure on the market, which shows signs of recovery.”

ALROSA Group rough and polished diamond sales in 2020

	Rough diamonds and grinding powders, $ mln	Polished diamonds, $ mln	Total rough and polished diamonds, $ mln
January	390.2	14.8	405.0
February	342.3	4.1	346.4
March	148.7	4.1	152.8
April	13.1	2.4	15.6
May	36.2	3.9	40.1
June	24.8	6.5	31.3
Total	955.3	35.8	991.1